

Orangeville's annual Founders' Fair coming July 10-11

The Downtown Orangeville BIA will be hosting the Annual Founders' Fair celebration on Friday and Saturday, July 10 and 11, in the downtown area.

The event will open in style with an old-fashioned kick off on the Main stage sponsored by MacMaster Pontiac Buick GMC and Silverbrook Homes. Orangeville's Official Town Crier, Betty Kading, will lead the way introducing MP David Tilson, Mayor Rob Adams and BIA Chair Geoff Chandler to welcome visitors and launch this year's festivities.

Immediately following, crowds will enjoy the skill of juggling and acrobatic performances by A Different Spin.

At the main stage, the Campfire Poets will be performing from 7:30 to 10 p.m. and will entertain the crowd with five decades of upbeat party songs, great musicianship and a whole lot of fun. With classics like "Brown Eyed Girl" and "Mustang Sally" to modern classics like "What I Got" and "Home for a Rest", it's no wonder crowds love them! Their repertoire includes selections from Credence Clearwater Revival, Steve Miller, Big Sugar, Red Hot

Chili Peppers, Blue Rodeo, Eric Clapton, Great Big Sea, Bob

Marley, Muddy Waters, ZZ Top, U2, Spirit of the West, Willie Nelson, Sam

Roberts, Pink Floyd, Tragically Hip, Bedouin Soundclash and more.

No matter what sets your toes tapping you're sure to find something to please your musical tastes on Friday night. Be sure to take to the streets enjoy the sidewalk sale offered by the merchants and businesses and celebrate the warm summer evening breezes and the founding of Orangeville.

Fun for the entire family starting on Friday evening includes a Family

Fun Zone on Mill Street, Albion Amusement rides and games at Wellington, train ride and tot games in Alexandra Park, street entertainers and a community atmosphere which makes the spirit of Orangeville so unique.

Bowen wins hospice award

Hospice Dufferin has presented Loretta Bowen with the Hospice Dufferin Palliative Care Award.

The award is presented annually to an individual who shows excellence in palliative care. Nominations are received from numerous providers of palliative care.

Loretta is a personal support worker (PSW) with Canadian Red Cross. She trained to become a PSW after raising her five children.

"Loretta has had many palliative clients in the community but the nominations committee was very impressed with her work in a specific case presented by the caregiver's family," said Maureen Riedler, executive director of Hospice Dufferin. She said the family felt that "Loretta provided assistance above and beyond her job obligations and often assisted on her own time."

MPP Sylvia Jones

"The feds are collecting less money now, not the province. Without a doubt, Dalton McGuinty will be collecting more. The whole point of the petition is show how many additional products and services will be captured under the HST."

Ms. Jones says she decided to come up with the petition because "they present a different kind of reality. When I stand up every day in the legislature with ten more pages of petitions, there is a different kind of credibility."

the Liberals should be more accountable as to their true motives.

"If (McGuinty) is bringing in the harmonized sales tax to collect more tax, than he should have been up front and honest about that," says Ms. Jones. "He said it was all about making life easier and nothing like: 'By the way, we get more money into our coffers.'"

The HST, she says, will even bring the province more revenue than when the combined GST and Ontario PST totalled 15
