

Awards given for best in local tourism

The Hills of Headwaters Tourism Association celebrated tourism excellence at their annual general meeting on Wednesday, June 17 at The Royal Ambassador Event Centre in Caledon.

Seven Headwaters businesses and individuals were selected based on their contribution to the local tourism industry, excellence in branding and marketing, as well as service, professionalism, and leadership in their respective sector.

The recipients of the Hills of Headwaters 2009 Tourism Awards include:

• Tourism Ambassador of the Year – Jocelyn Klemm and Ric Kitowski of The Wine Coaches. This team has committed hours of personal time to promote Hills of Headwaters' initiatives. Jocelyn is a past chair of the Association and Ric is a vital member of the Association's SummerFeast/WinterFeast committee.

• Restaurant of the Year – Mrs. Mitchell's in Violet Hill. After 29 years in business, Mrs.

Mitchell's is a well-known destination for hot, wholesome food with substantial portions. The owner works closely with other local businesses and attractions as well as tour operators.

• Retailer of the Year – BookLore, Orangeville. This bookstore plays a key role in the development of the region's cultural scene by fostering partnerships with community groups as well as hosting events. Staff are well-informed about the business and local happenings.

• Accommodation of the Year – The Millcroft Inn & Spa, Alton. Recognized by Ontario's Finest Inns, the Millcroft proudly promotes the surrounding region at trade shows and consistently directs its guests to local businesses.

• Attraction/Event of the Year – SummerFeast/WinterFeast. In its third year, the "Feast" program raised an estimated $1 million of revenue for the region's participating fine dining restaurants. Page views at the "Feast" websites have increased tenfold since 2006.

• Artisan of the Year – Susan Powell. Susan has provided her time and talents as an artist, coordinator, juror and counsellor to the region's art community including the Headwaters Arts Festival and Erin Studio Tour.

• Professional Service of the Year – In the Hills Magazine. The magazine is a sponsor for many local festivals and attractions and is a member of the national, peer-reviewed organization, Magazines Canada.

The Dufferin County Museum and Archives will host a show and sale of original art works by local members of the Orangeville Art Group.

The "Summer in the Silo" art show and sale promises to have works of all styles of art for your viewing pleasure.

"In the spring of 1955, nine women met in the basement of Westminster United Church and christened themselves the Orangeville Art Club. Bonded by a shared love of painting, these friends became the driving force behind a group which would span five decades..." — excerpt from: Fifty Years of Creativity.

The Orangeville Art Group (OAG) is a not-for-profit organization with a mandate to encourage and promote an appreciation of art; to provide members with opportunities to display their work; to cooperate with other organizations in presenting viewpoints of the art community; to encourage and arrange instruction in art, and to provide for contact and Mono. Tourism development fosters the conservation of a community's natural, cultural and historic resources, and encourages community beautification and revitalization.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING
TOWN OF ORANGEVILLE
DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

Take Notice that on July 13, 2009, the Council of the Town of Orangeville will hold a public meeting pursuant to The Development Charges Act, 1997, regarding proposed development charge rates and policies that will be applied throughout the Town and in specific areas within the Town. It is proposed that enactment of a Development Charges By-law(s) by Council would occur on a date subsequent to this public meeting.

Development Charges are levied against new development, and are a primary source of funding growth-related capital expenditures. Town capital services include water, sewer, storm water, roads, transit, parks and recreation, library, fire, police, public works and general government.

Town Council is required under The Development Charges Act, 1997, to hold at least one public meeting to allow the public the opportunity to review and provide comments on the 2009 Development Charges Study, related staff reports and the proposed Development Charges By-law(s).

All interested parties are invited to attend on:

Monday, July 13, 2009 at 7:00 p.m.
Council Chambers, Town Hall,
87 Broadway, Orangeville, Ontario

Copies of the Development Charges Background Study, related staff reports and the proposed Development Charges By-law(s) will be available through the Town Clerk's office on June 29, 2009.

Written submissions are invited and should be directed to Jack Tupling, P.Eng., Director of Public Works no later than Tuesday, July 7, 2009. Written comments received prior to the meeting and submissions made at the public meeting will be considered by Town Council prior to the enactment of a new Development Charges By-law(s).

Inquiries should be directed to Jack Tupling, P.Eng. at 519-941-0440 ext. 247 or Karen Craggs at 519-941-0440 ext. 238.

Those wishing to address Town Council on the above-noted matters must advise Cheryl Johns, Clerk in writing no later than 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 7, 2009, at the above address, by fax number 519-941-9033 or e-mail at cjohns@orangeville.ca.
