710 CARDS OF THANKS

JOHNSTON, Doug
Thank you to my family and friends for the fruit, flowers and cards. Thank you most of all for the support and encouragement I received while in the hospital and since returning home following my stroke. Thank you, everyone, so much.
MALTBY
Thanks to those who made inquiries, while I have not been feeling well, and in hospital, also for card from New Horizons.
Irwin

TOWNSEND, Alma
How do you thank a whole community? The family of Alma Townsend would like to start by thanking the many home care nurses and Cancer Society drivers who managed to keep her home and comfortable for many years. The staff at Princess Margaret Hospital was always kind and full of hope.
Thank you to the many people that visited, called, sent cards and helped out while Alma was in the hospitals here in Dufferin for the last time. The care of the nursing staff at both Headwaters Orangeville and Shelburne was caring and compassionate. To the hospital Chaplains, area Ministers and especially Alice Porter, a special thanks for your visits, your comforting and understanding meant a lot to Alma.
After Alma's death, the countless meaningful cards, messages, floral tributes and contributions to churches and charities made a hard time much easier. The service was made more meaningful to us by all those who attended, especially the many of you who had to celebrate outside in the cold and rain. Thank you to those who shared their stories of Alma's life and to Bert and his family at Dods & McNair. It was a great send off, one Alma would have enjoyed.
As a family we became very aware of the respect and love that was felt for Alma throughout the community. Knowing that she touched so many lives in such diverse circumstances is comforting. Your experiences are a testimony to a life well lived.
How do you thank an entire community? We hope that a humble thank you will suffice, and another even bigger thanks for your continual acts of kindness.
"People will forget what you said, people will forget what you do, but people will never forget how you made them feel." Maya Angelou
