THE CORPORATION OF THE COUNTY OF DUFFERIN

COMMUNITY SERVICES PROGRAM MANAGER (ONTARIO WORKS and SOCIAL HOUSING)

The County of Dufferin seeks a proven individual in the Community Services Department who will provide leadership and direction to the Ontario Works and Social Housing Divisions. The successful candidate will ensure that services are provided in a professional, facilitating, and cost effective manner. Working under the Ontario Works Act and the Social Housing Reform Act, the successful candidate will develop services to enhance the delivery of Ontario Works and Social Housing. The Program Manager will provide procedures and best practices to address operational standards, coordinate and integrate the various initiatives and strategies to ensure the efficient delivery of both programs.

Task Description

- Provide a leadership role and maintain a thorough knowledge of program requirements, departmental guidelines and office procedures.
- Maintain the guidelines of the designated units within the department. Work with the Director to develop and implement program related guidelines as required.
- Monitor team and staff performance.
- Develop and maintain good working relationships with key stakeholders.
- Utilize current technology to monitor performance, record statistics, prepare reports, and assist in the delivery of department program services.
- Responding to public enquiries in a timely manner.
- Preparing for and attending appeals and tribunal hearings.

Qualifications

- Graduation from a recognized university or from a community college in social services and six (6) years experience in the human services field, or an acceptable combination of education, skills and experience related to Ontario Works, Social Housing or Children's Services.
- Experience and demonstrated proficiency with SDMT and standard PC computer software.
- Experience with the creation of annual Service Manager Service Plans.
- Knowledge of Canada-Ontario Affordable Housing Program.
- Knowledge of financial assistance costs and employment assistance.
- Knowledge of local government and community agencies.
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills with a demonstrated ability to deal professionally with clients and contacts from other social service agencies.
- Demonstrated coaching and facilitating skills.

Compensation is $68,779 - $80,458 and includes a comprehensive pension and benefits package, a small town lifestyle with the opportunity to reside in one of the most attractive areas of the province.

Please forward your resume by Monday, December 7, 2009 at 4:30 pm to:
Mark Bialkowski, Human Resources Manager
